See you at the Parade!

It's the annual Labour Day Parade and you're the guest of honour. Please join your OPSEU brothers and sisters for a day of fun and solidarity.

When: Monday, September 4 at 10:30

Where: OPSEU Locals are meeting at the corner of Stuart and Tiffany Streets.

Please note: The route has changed from previous years. Unions and solidarity groups line up on Stuart St and head south on Bay St to Main St, east on Main St to James St, north on James St to Strachan St, west on Strachan to Harbour Front Drive and into Bay Front Park.

- The BBQ/picnic and entertainment following the parade takes place at BAY FRONT PARK, featuring Annette Haas.
- OPSEU will have a tent set up where we will be offering free food! And, there will be swag, in the form of OPSEU t-shirts.
- Beer will be available for sale in a licensed area.

This is a very important year for members of Local 240, as we negotiate a new Collective Agreement. Let's show management we mean business. However, let's all have a fun day, as well. You know what they say about "all work and no play". See you there!
